PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT

Personal Items About Active
Chicago Men Who Help
Mold Public Opinion.

Something About Hustlers in the Business and Political World of the City.

There is a big boom among loyal and enthusiastic members of the Democratic party in favor of the nomination of Harry H. Latham, the popular president of the famous Iroquois Club, for mayor of Chicago.

No better man could be nominated for that high office.

Mr. Latham is president of the big Latham Machinery company, one of the best known and solidest concerns in the country. No man stands higher in the business community and no man is more popular with everybody who does business with him whether in his machine shops or in commercial life.

He is a broad minded man of affairs, eminently fitted to be chief executive of this great city.

Mr. Latham was president of the Chicago Athletic Association for some time and in that position made many warm friends.

As president of the Iroquois Club he has made his usual record for efficiency and progressiveness.

Under his presidency the Club has been greatly enlarged and now ocupies six floors in its own building at 26 North Dearborn street. He has brought 151 new members into the Club through his own exertions, we are informed by an old Iroquois brave.

Harry H. Latham for mayor would be a winning ticket for the Democrats.

Secretary of State Louis L. Emmerson is making a fine record and many friends by the able and efficient manner in which he conducts his great office.

Henry Stuckart is the choice of thousands of Democrats for mayor of Chicago.

R. C. McWhorter, the popular president of the Acme Box Company, has a host of friends in Chicago who would like a chance to vote for him for Mayor or some good office, where his splendid executive abilities could be of service to the people.

Thomas J. Webb Coffee, sold in cans at 39 cents per pound, is the housewife's standard for excellent quality. It is the coffee that is popular with everybody who has ever used it.

Richard Francis Condon, the popular chairman of the Elks Membership Committee is confident of adding 3000 new members to the rolls of the organization this year.

Judge D. E. Sullivan has made an honest, dignified and able record on the bench.

Judge John R. Cawery is daily adding to his popularity in Chicago by his splendid record on the Municipal Court bench.

The Home Brewery is not only Chi-go's youngest brewery, but it is one of her most successful. No brewery in the United States ever achieved success in such a short time as the Home Brewery. Its beer already has a reputation among the lovers of good beer as being par excellence. The Home Brewery also bottles its beer and a case can be had by calling up Humboldt 9310.—Advertisement.

Out of Focus.

If you have head aches your eyes are possibly out of focus.

If your eyes smart and burn or the movies blur, your eyes are out of focus.

If the letters run while you are reading or if you don't see all things clearly your eyes are out of focus.

If your child is pale and nervous the chances are its eyes are out of focus.

Buck & Rayner's main store at State and Madison has an expert who will gladly examine your eyes without cost or obligation and frankly tell you if you need to wear glasses or not. Those of our readers who are now wearing glasses are invited to have their eyes examined free and they will be told if any improvement can be made. This service is entirely free.

IT is a good practice to say "Good-by" or something similar when you conclude a telephone conversation and are about to hang up the receiver.

The person with whom you have been talking is then sure you have finished.

Following this simple practice will help to make your telephone conversations pleasant and satisfactory.
